

Charles Blankenship CCEMTP

Mobile Integrated Healthcare/ Community Paramedicine is?

Filling Gaps to Provide Access and Self Managed Care

Studies have shown that utilizing community paramedics can result in economic savings because they help citizens and communities overcome barriers that prevent them from accessing health care services.

Services Include :

- Function as physician eyes and ears in rural homes
- Provide high quality primary care
- Outreach to urban and rural areas
- Safety & wellness initiatives
- Health screening & assessments
- Health education
- Immunizations
- Wound care
- Screening for mental illness
- Chronic disease management plan initiation and follow up
- Monitoring DM, CHF, COPD and other complex patients

Tools

- Care Coordination Team- RN, LCSW, Certified Pharmacy Technician (CPhT). providing ongoing Care Management intervention and community resource linkage as needed
- ESO interface Health Data Exchange (HDE) inserts EMS chart into Cerner
- Cerner Chart Access
- Access to put visit EHR into Athena Population Health software
- Patient Health Questionnaires PHQ-2 and PHQ-9
- Medication Assessment and Medication Discrepancy reporting
- Home Safety Assessment

Community Paramedics/Mobile Integrated Healthcare

Accountable
Care
Organization
Care
Coordination
Team

FIGURE 1.
Mission Health Partners Care Management Pod Model

