

ESSENTIALS FOR CHILDHOOD
TRAUMA-INFORMED PRACTICES WORKING GROUP
NOVEMBER 9, 2017
1 pm to 3 pm

Purpose of today's meeting: to review Essentials for Childhood ongoing activities and goals of working group; to gain understanding of work underway in early education to address trauma and toxic stress; to develop a shared understanding of issues pertaining to evaluation and dissemination of trauma-informed practices in school and early education settings

1:00 PM TO 1:10 PM      INTRODUCTIONS

Tripp Ake, Duke University Medical Center, Center for Child and Family Health
Catherine Joyner, Division of Public Health, NC DHHS
Michelle Ries, North Carolina Institute of Medicine
Anne Foglia, North Carolina Institute of Medicine

1:10 PM TO 1:20 PM      ESSENTIALS FOR CHILDHOOD: ONGOING ACTIVITIES

Catherine Joyner, Division of Public Health, NC DHHS

1:20 PM TO 1:50 PM      NORTH CAROLINA MODELS OF TRAUMA-INFORMED PRACTICE INITIATIVES: EARLY EDUCATION

Karen McKnight, M.Ed.
Director
Head Start State Collaboration Office
NC Department of Public Instruction, Office of Early Learning

Discussion

1:50 PM TO 2:10 PM      TRAUMA- INFORMED PRACTICES: EVALUATION

Katie D. Rosanbalm
Research Scientist
Duke Center for Child and Family Policy

2:10 PM TO 2:45 PM      DISCUSSION: EVALUATION AND DISSEMINATION

2:45 PM TO 2:55 PM      REPORT BACK

2:55 PM TO 3:00 PM      NEXT STEPS